1. How long have you been a member of WHF and what have you gained from being a member?

I joined WHF in 1998 and enjoyed networking and developing brown bag lunch meetings. This eventually led to leadership on the WHF Board of Directors and my former role as WHF President.

2. How do you make the best use of your day? (think techniques to enhance productivity, time management, time out, meditation/prayer, etc.)

I start each day with an hour walk with good friends at 6:00 am. It is refreshing, healthy and fun.

3. What do you love most about what you do?

I am a seasoned mortgage professional and in my current role I chair a non-profit that serves the consumers who need assistance in homeownership readiness or foreclosure prevention. I also serve as an advisor about modernizing the mortgage lending process to meet the 21st Century lending demands.

4. What inspires you?

Leading change that contributes to a better outcome for consumers, lenders and investors.

5. What is the best advice you've ever received?

As a leader, serve as a resource for your team and always lead by example. Walk the walk.

6. What are you currently reading?

Evicted by Matthew Desmond and Bold by Peter Diamandis.

7. What is your personal philosophy?

Engage in activities that tap your passion in your professional and personal life.

8. Who do you look up to the most and why?

As a professional, I admire leaders who remain humble, value their own people as their greatest assets, and make time to give back.
